Live Performance Policy & Procedures

- Crafted Kup welcomes performers of all genres and types, musical and non, however acts will be selected based on how they fit both the atmosphere of Crafted Kup.
- Currently we do not pay performers, however we do encourage the use of a tip jar and glad welcome you to sell any band-related merchandise you might have. In addition, coffee is on us for you and your band for the night you perform.
- Booking is done on a first-come basis. Please check the event calendar on our website (<http://www.thecraftekup.com/>) for available dates.
- Starting time for performances is largely left up to the performer, however musical sets must be finished by 10:00pm on weekdays and 11:00pm on Fridays/Saturdays.
- Crafted Kup will provide the use of our house sound system for performers but all equipment must be returned once finished. Replacement/repair cost for any missing or damaged equipment will be billed to the performer.
- Photo and video recordings of performances may be used in advertising/promotion for The Crafted Kup
- Crafted Kup will be glad to display any posters or flyers advertising your show, as well as add you to our online calendar of events, and our social media accounts, however advertising for shows will ultimately be the responsibility of the performer.
